The acclaimed debut short story collection that introduced the world to an arresting and unforgettable new voice in fiction, from multi-award winning author ZZ Packer Her impressive range and talent are abundantly evident: Packer dazzles with her command of language, surprising and delighting us with unexpected turns and indelible images, as she takes us into the lives of characters on the periphery, unsure of where they belong. We meet a Brownie troop of black girls who are confronted with a troop of white girls; a young man who goes with his father to the Million Man March and must decide where his allegiance lies; an international group of drifters in Japan, who are starving, unable to find work; a girl in a Baltimore ghetto who has dreams of the larger world she has seen only on the screens in the television store nearby, where the Lithuanian shopkeeper holds out hope for attaining his own American Dream. With penetrating insight, ZZ Packer helps us see the world with a clearer vision. Fresh, versatile, and captivating, Drinking Coffee Elsewhere is a striking and unforgettable collection, sure to stand out among the contemporary canon of fiction.

From the bestselling & award-winning poetess, amanda lovelace, comes the finale of her illustrated duology, "things that h(a)unt." In the first installment, to make monsters out of girls, lovelace explored the memory of being in a toxic romantic relationship. In to drink coffee with a ghost, lovelace unravels the memory of the complicated relationship she had with her now-deceased mother.

Four stories narrated from four different perspectives crisscross throughout this poignant and playful novel. Young Tomas – who wants above all else to be intelligent – embarks upon a dizzying search for a rare blue dragonfly, of which he believes there are only nine or ten in the world (and therefore probably only two or three in his town). Drawing us into the channels of his mercurial mind, skipping through misadventures and stumbling upon a host of small wonders, we are introduced to three generations of his motley family tree and accompany them on their odd quests. From the moonlit creation of a rugby field on a golf course, to the unearthing of the escapades of his anarchist grandfather, a celebrated carpenter, the medley of tales flips on their heads standard assumptions about age, wisdom, sensibility, and truth, inviting us to open our eyes to the bounty of tiny marvels that make up our world.

"Never Drink Coffee During A Business Meeting" grabs young businesswomen by their stilettos and launches them on a journey of caution and self-promotion. "Never Drink Coffee During A Business Meeting" describes how one woman successfully shattered her own glass ceilings by packing her Coach briefcase with the wit and wisdom of the powerful women she met on her way to the top. "Never Drink Coffee During A Business Meeting" examines the state of affairs of women in business today and offers remedy to the anti-female, male-dominated culture that still prevails. It is packed with gems of advice and savvy mentoring shared by the CEO-author.

Looking for Inspiration? Are you wondering if there's more to this life than the next Netflix special? Well...you're in the right place. Because I wrote this book for you. This is a 30 day devotional. But it's not theology. It won't cure a disease or get you into heaven. I'm not a theologian, preacher, teacher, or any one else with qualifications to write such a thing. This book isn't for baptists, methodists, catholics, calvinists, dunkers, or sprinklers. It's for misfits, pill heads, lawyers, prostitutes, junkies, manic depressives, shut-ins, zealots, anarchists, tax-collectors, thieves, and insomniacs. In other words, it's not for those that have it all figured out. It's for the rest of us. The ones looking and searching. The ones that know HOPE is the most dangerous idea of all. So sit back...Relax...And DRINK THIS BOOK WHILE READING YOUR MORNING COFFEE
