Fables Vol. 7: Arabian Nights (and Days) by Bill ...

This volume deals with the fables of the Arabian Nights, as well as a story of two wooden soldiers of the Adversary who eventually end up as human spies. There are various artists used on this series, but they all seem to fit the book and so far I haven't seen any art that looks out of place.

One Thousand and One Nights, if the storyteller were Snow White, captured on her way to the Arabian Fables to make a pact against the Adversary. I actually read this slightly out of order, it should have been before Fables, Vol. 7: Arabian Nights and would have given that story a bit more context, but so it goes.
